Serviam, Latin for “I will serve”, is the Ursuline motto. The College of New Rochelle was founded in 1904 by the Ursuline order and continues today in the Ursuline tradition. Annually, as a community of learners, we take the opportunity to serve others.

Community Service Day 2019 Activities

1. JOC – Harold Wilkerson, Director of Student Success

   Title of Service Project: Lending a Helping Hand to Those in Need

   Date: Wednesday, April 17th, 2019

   Time: 11:30 AM – 1:30 PM

   Location: Siena House, Women’s Shelter / 85 W 168th St, Bronx, NY 10452

   Activity Description: In living our everyday lives we can overlook the basic necessities that some individuals/families go without daily. Students from the JOC Campus are taking action by serving the young women and children of the Siena House shelter. As requested by the Siena House, JOC students will be collecting basic needs such as body towels, hand towels, socks, crib sheets and will be delivered directly to the shelter. Director of Student Success, Harold Wilkerson, along with the JOC students will also engage in conversation about the importance of continuing their education and paving their path to success.

2. Rosa Parks – Errol Bedford, Director of Student Success

   Title of Service Project: Food Pantry Service at Catholic Charities' Lt. Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr. Community Center

   Date and Time: Wednesday, April 17, 2019, 8:30 a.m.-12 p.m.

   Location: 34 West 134th Street

   Activity Description: The center has a client service food pantry service every Wednesday morning from 9:00 am to 11:00 am. Volunteers will be needed from 8:30 am (setup) to 12 noon (breaking down of tables, stocking food items back in shelves, etc.). From 9 am to 11:30 am the volunteers will provide customer service for community clients who will gather food items from the pantry.

3. Brooklyn – Harold Wilkerson, Director of Student Success

   Title of Service Project: Providing Encouragement to our US Military

   Location: Restoration Plaza, 2nd floor, Front Desk

   Date and Time: Wednesday, April 17, 2019 (all day)

   Activity Description: In a continued effort to offer care and encouragement for the military community, students, staff and faculty at the Brooklyn Campus will participate in Operation We Are Here by creating cards of gratitude and inspiration for active military personnel. All supplies will be available at the Front Desk of the campus 2nd floor for community members to write messages and to decorate their cards.

4. Co-op City – Jonathan Woney, Director of Student Success

   Title of Service Project: Fun With Our Seniors

   Date and Time: Wednesday, April 17, 2019, 2 – 4 p.m.

   Location: Split Rock Rehabilitation and Health Care Center/ 3525 Baychester Ave, Bronx, NY 10466

   Activity Description: Bringing joy to the people is an essential part to servicing the community. Faculty, staff, and students at the Co-op City campus will visit Split Rock Rehabilitation and Health Care Center on 3525 Baychester Ave, Bronx, NY 10466. Some seniors do not have any family nor visitors to come and see them as often as they would like. Our goal is to uplift their spirits and be of service to them. We serve snacks and engage in conversation regarding everyone’s journey through life. Lastly, we will engage them in a fun game of BINGO.

5. New Rochelle Campus

   Title of Service Project: Residence Park Neighborhood Clean-up

   Date and Time: Saturday April 13, 2019, 12-3 p.m.

   Activity Description: In recognition of Earth Day to demonstrate our support of environmental protection, all community members are welcome to join the Residence Park Neighborhood Association in their annual Neighborhood Clean-Up. All participants will be divided into several groups and will pick up garbage in the area within Residence Park which includes the New Rochelle campus.
