

Master's Degree in
TEACHING ENGLISH TO SPEAKERS OF OTHER LANGUAGES (TESOL)

(Pre-K, elementary, and secondary grades)

EARN A MASTER'S IN TEACHING ENGLISH TO SPEAKERS OF OTHER LANGUAGES (TESOL)

The College of New Rochelle's Multilingual/Multicultural Education Program recognizes the diversity of linguistic backgrounds and cultures that characterize families and schools in the New York metropolitan area.

The TESOL master's program stresses language and linguistics, methodology in ESL, cultural awareness, and special developmental needs. Graduates of the program are prepared to teach English to speakers of other languages in the pre-kindergarten, elementary, and secondary grades.

TESOL/NCATE PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

Through the knowledge, skills, and cultural sensitivities offered by the program, prospective teachers can address the needs of children whose primary language is other than English. In addition, prospective teachers will have demonstrated that they meet or exceed the TESOL/NCATE Professional Standards.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- Application form
- Official transcripts from all institutions of higher learning
- Two letters of recommendation of an academic or professional nature
- A personal interview
- A writing sample
- A $35 application fee
