Why Prepare for the High School Equivalency Exam (TASC) at the JOC Campus?
With classes offered close to home you can prepare for the TASC exam (formerly GED) while maintaining a healthy work, life, and school balance. You’ll develop your skills in a program that is modeled on a college semester and proven effective at helping students meet the demands of the new, more rigorous high school equivalency exam. You’ll have access to all of PCAP’s extensive resources, including academic advisement, aid in reserving TASC examination dates, and college enrollment assistance.

PRE-COLLEGE ACADEMIC PROGRAM (PCAP)
EARNING YOUR HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA IS AN IMPORTANT MILESTONE, BUT THE JOURNEY DOESN’T END THERE!

After passing the TASC exam, many PCAP students capitalize on their academic progress by entering the School of New Resources and pursuing their bachelor’s degree. Most students juggle more than just schoolwork. To accommodate your busy schedule, we offer evening, weekend, and summer courses. You can even earn credit with independent research projects and online courses.

What else sets SNR’s college program apart?
• Nationally recognized leader in adult education
• Named a “best practice” institution by the Council for Adult and Experiential Learning
• Study full-time just two days a week
• Six-credit courses to help you finish on time
• Financial aid available

“THE PRE-COLLEGE ACADEMIC PROGRAM AT CNR’S SCHOOL OF NEW RESOURCES WAS A GREAT RESOURCE FOR MY FUTURE. I ACCOMPLISHED MY GOAL OF PASSING THE EXAM AND OBTAINING MY HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA. I AM NOW CLOSE TO FINISHING MY BACHELOR’S DEGREE!”

SADE BELLAMY, PCAP GRADUATE, SNR ’16

“LEARNING IN AN EDUCATIONAL ENVIRONMENT CREATED SPECIFICALLY FOR ADULT LEARNERS WAS A WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE. THERE WAS FREEDOM TO FIND AND FOLLOW MY OWN CURIOSITY, AND THE SMALL CLASS SIZES ALLOWED US TO KNOW AND SUPPORT ONE ANOTHER. I RECOMMEND CNR TO EVERYONE.”
