School of New Resources
AT THE COLLEGE OF NEW ROCHELLE

The School of New Resources has long been a leader in adult higher education. Here you will find many academic choices and accomplished and dedicated faculty who are anxious to help you gain the knowledge and skills necessary to transform your life, your community, and the world.

Continue your education in a pre-college course that prepares you to pass the high school equivalency exam and earn your diploma while also helping you develop the knowledge and skills crucial to success in college and on the job. We look forward to discussing how your academic plans will enrich your professional life.
